

Maximize Your Marriage

Break through relational barriers to experience true intimacy

With Dr. Dan Erickson

Is it possible to have a marriage made in Heaven while still living on earth? We're happy to answer "yes!" Discover keys to developing real intimacy and love while identifying a sense of purpose for marriage that goes beyond yourselves.

Dan and Cathy Erickson have been married for four decades and have two children and a growing tribe of grandchildren. In this conference, Dan casts a vision for marriage as God intended it to be. In addition, he shares heartfelt experiences about his triumphs, trials and failures in marriage, all with an eye to helping people find God's best in their own relationships.

Session 1

The Battle for Your Marriage

There is an enemy who is determined to destroy you and your marriage. Knowing your enemy is critical to winning the battle. Learn what it takes to find fulfillment in your marriage and win the war for your family.

Session 2

Intimacy with Your Mate

Someone has identified intimacy as "into me see." What are the barriers keeping you from true intimacy? Identify the keys that will unlock your most important relationship. Learn to experience the closeness that God wants for you and your spouse.

Session 3

The Perfect Ten

There are 10 keys to a perfect love. By examining 1 Cor. 13, we can learn what it means to experience God-given love in each of our relationships. You can discover a love that is complete, mature and lacking nothing.

Session 4

Leaving a Legacy Through Your Marriage

Your marriage can make a mark for eternity. Do you really believe that? In John 13, Christ illustrates the kind of people we need to become if we want Him to use us. If we want to leave a legacy for our children and our world, then we have to be willing to lay aside our pride, position, power and worldly success. Discover what it means to be truly great. Love + Servants + Towels = A Fulfilled Marriage.
